PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Happy May Day:

As the weather warms up, we continue to adjust to this new way of life, marked by face coverings and 6 ft. social distancing. If you are like me, you realize how much of our pre-pandemic lives we took for granted. The life we live as R.Vers. makes us want to get out and go somewhere and talk and visit with friends and family. I guess we can wait a little longer. We, as I am sure you are, are reaching out to friends and family in a new way, called social media. Whether by phone or computer we try to stay in touch. I have not received any feedback from our group about members being under the weather, but most of us have itchy feet.

The Gold Diggers next outing is scheduled for Jackson Rancheria in July. I have been communicating with them and have been told both the Casino and the campground are still closed. They still have our group in their system and if things change they will keep us informed. If the opening date gets pushed back further they will reach out to us with another date or send our refund back or can carry it over to keep our name on their books.

Horace and I could use your input on this so we know how the members would like to proceed.

A bit of warning: Another one of our members had their E-Mail account hacked and a message sent out to most of the people on their list asking them to send money or gift cards to someplace because of a situation. Take the time to call and confirm this is a bona fide request.

As the weather warms up take time to check your R.V's to make sure there is liquid in the holding tanks. If left plugged in check the batteries to make sure they have ample water. Liquid in tanks have a tendency to evaporate as temperatures rise.

Let's all stay in contact as Darlene and I are doing, waiting for the situation to change so we can go somewhere. The other thing we are noticing is that our hands are getting more alcohol than our mouths.

Stay healthy and will talk soon.

EDITOR'S NOTE: There is no Secretary's Report for this issue since we didn't have a rally. I am so sad!

EDITOR'S REMARKS

Do you find all these Covid restrictions as terminally boring as Jonni and I do? Talk about stir-crazy! I would like to re-emphasize what our esteemed President what's-his-name said about checking your batteries periodically to ensure that you are not boiling your batteries dry. Remember, add Distilled Water ONLY! Also, since your rig, like mine, is probably sitting idle throughout this period, you really should drive it about every three weeks. I don't mean a short trip around the block either. You should drive it long enough that the engine is completely up to temperature. This normally takes about 20 to 30 minutes. Doing this accomplishes several things: it lubricates the wheel bearings to avoid having them rust in place (yes this can happen when the weight of the rig squeezes all the grease out of the bottom of the bearings), and it lubricates the engine thereby helping to prevent rust from forming on the bearing and cylinder surfaces due to long inaction. Also, it helps prevent the tires from decaying – the rubber likes to flex.
